KeyMacro is one of the best applications for record macros. But you probably knew that. This is a MUST-HAVE application for anyone who does a lot of fast data entry. KeyMacro simplifies a lot of tedious and repetitive tasks. You may record a macro that fills in a form, paste it in another form, store it, create reports... and you can continue by creating a new copy of the initial one. It allows you to enter from within one application to another, and with this key, you can save time and enhance your work. It will also help you with not losing too much information during key entry. All the information that you will type in and the result of your actions will be saved as a file. Of course, you can edit the file and make changes, so you can continue and use the macro again and again. To sum up, KeyMacro is one of the most complete and useful applications out there for record macros.
